CHESHIRE HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING RAM BAND TAKES HOME TROPHIES AT WATERFORD EVENT

CHESHIRE (Sept. 18) – The Cheshire High School Marching Ram Band opened its United States Scholastic Band Association (USSBA) season in impressive fashion on Saturday at Waterford High School, bringing home three trophies and posting the highest score among the 12 bands that competed.

The Marching Ram Band won specialty awards for best overall music, best overall general effect and highest overall score.

Saturday's performance marked the band's first in Group 5, which is for bands with between 101 and 135 members. Cheshire competed as a Group 4 school last year.

The Marching Ram Band's next USSBA competition will be Saturday, Oct. 2nd, at Rocky Hill High School. For more information on the Ram Band, go to www.ramband.com.
