CHESHIRE HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING RAM BAND

CHESHIRE (Oct. 11) - Maybe it was the debut of a secret special effect that left the audience at Dodd Stadium ooohing and aaahing in its wake. Or maybe it was just the work of a polished Cheshire High School Marching Ram Band that is hitting its stride.

Either way you look at it, the Ram Band turned in a strong performance Saturday, Oct. 9th at the Norwich Free Academy Classic Band Festival. Cheshire won Group V – beating Wethersfield and Cranston (R.I.) East High School – and taking home specialty awards for Best Music and Best Color Guard in the process.

This Saturday, Oct. 16th, the Ram Band hosts its hugely successful Music in Motion® band festival, featuring 15 high school marching bands and Central Connecticut State University Marching Band. For more information about the show, which starts at 4:45 p.m., go to www.ramband.com or call 203-271-2280.
