Cheshire Marching Ram Band Wins Connecticut State Championship

CHESHIRE – On a weekend of wild and woolly weather, the Cheshire High School Marching Ram Band stormed to another Connecticut State title.

Cheshire's 94.7 score was more than a point higher than Southington High School, giving the Ram Band the state Group V title in Saturday night's Connecticut State Championships at Sacred Heart University. Cheshire's score was also the highest of any of the 16 teams competing.

Cheshire also won its final regular season competition at Bunnell High School in Stratford earlier in the day.

The Ram Band will be looking to defend its United States Scholastic Band Association All States Group V title this Saturday at J. Birney Crum Stadium in Allentown, Pa. Go to www.ramband.com for more information on the Cheshire High School Marching Ram Band.
