

Barbara Bauer is excited to join the CHMRB staff for her second year as a color guard technician. Barbara has been participating in color guard/winter guard for many years. She began at Montville High School and continued marching throughout college in the UConn Winter guard (2004-2008), and the Connecticut Hurricanes Drum and Bugle Corps (2007 and 2008). She started teaching color guard in 2006 with the Killingly High School Marching Band in Danielson, CT. After three years with Killingly, Barbara joined the color guard staff for the 7th Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps in New London, CT and continues to work with this program.

Barbara attended the University of Connecticut and earned a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Mathematics Education and a Master of Arts in Curriculum and Instruction. She is currently entering her third year of teaching mathematics at Pomperaug High School in Southbury, CT. Barbara is passionate about teaching and working with kids and is excited to have so many opportunities to do so on a daily basis.

