

Kevin Lam is excited to be joining the Cheshire Marching Ram Band as a visual instructor for the 2011-2012 season. Kevin began his marching career with Norwalk High School and continued on to march with DCI's Crossmen in 2005 and aging out with the Boston Crusaders in 2007. Previous to working with CHS, he was a brass and visual instructor for three seasons with the Rockville HS Ram Band from Vernon, CT. As with many of the staff members, Kevin has worked with the 7th Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps as a brass instructor for the past four years.

Kevin recently graduated with a Master of Music degree in horn performance and pedagogy from the University of Colorado at Boulder and holds undergraduate degrees in music education (BA Music, BS Education) from the University of Connecticut. At CU, Kevin performed with the in-residence graduate Flatirons Brass Quintet and recently participated in a residency program at Renmin University of China (Beijing) in May of 2011.

Kevin will begin his first year of teaching as the band director for Valley Regional High School and lesson instructor at John Winthrop Junior High School in Deep River, CT.
